

Elizabeth "Liz" Tanney-Palmer

- M.Ed in Elementary Education at the University of Maryland
- Maryland State Department of Education Certification in ESOL

American English Teacher

- Born and raised in Washington, DC, USA
 - Third year of teaching in France
 - I have three brothers, two nieces, and a baby nephew
 - My favorite thing to do in Montpellier is to walk around in the springtime and smell the flowers!
 - For me, L'homme (et le) vivant is about our relationships with the earth and with each other
- This is me with the wisteria in my garden in Montpellier!

- Washington, DC is famous for its beautiful springtime cherry blossoms. When I lived there, I saw them every year!

